

The Incredible Years is an award-winning, evidenced-based parenting model proven to increase parents' effectiveness as well as family communication and problem-solving. Studley Elementary School, in collaboration with Community Care Services, is enrolling parents/caregivers for this FREE 9-week Training Series now! Space is limited so please reserve your spot(s) early! Dinner and childcare will be provided.

Dates: Tuesday evenings from February 2 – April 6, 2010
(No session will be held Feb. 16th)

Time: Dinner at 5PM and Training Series 5:30-7:30pm
(During the parent training, the children can work on homework or participate in games or arts and crafts. If your child needs diapering or assistance, the staff will ask you for your help.)

Location: Studley Elementary School
299 Rathbun Willard Drive, Attleboro

RSVP by: January 26, 2010 to Jennifer Schwarz #508-223-4109

*If you would like to know more about the program before you sign up, please come to our:

Incredible Years Information Night

Wed. January 13, 2010, 6:30-7:30pm at Studley

Please refer to The Incredible Years website (<http://www.incredibleyears.com>) or call Jennifer Schwarz for more information on this 9-week parenting program!

